Communication Regarding Fees Due

The Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application dated 11/13/2000 has been received. The balance due for fees is listed as $1098.

The original application was filed on 09/27/2000. In that application, there are 19 claims. The Notice to File Missing Parts is charging $18 for 1 claim over 20. Because the application contains only 19 claims, applicant believes the $18 charge is incorrect and has not submitted the fee.

The Notice to File Missing Parts also is charging $260 for multiple dependent claims. Included in the original application was a preliminary amendment. The preliminary amendment eliminated all multiple dependent claims.

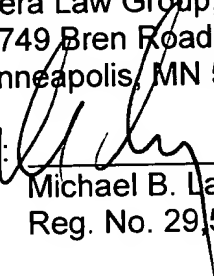

It is not believed that additional fees of $18 or $260 are due, but authorization is hereby given to charge Deposit Account 50-1038 the $18 and $260 fees if it is deemed necessary by the Office. Two checks, one for $690 and one for $130 totaling $820 are being included. If a telephone conference would be helpful in resolving any issues concerning this communication, please contact Applicant's attorney of record, Michael B. Lasky at (952) 912-0527.

Respectfully submitted,
